

Albert Krueger

Albert H. Krueger, 82, of 1006 Tecumseh St., died Thursday in St. Ann's Nursing Home, where he had been a patient for a week. He was a city patrolman from 1918 until 1932, and then worked many years as a custodian for Swan Creek Lumber Co. Surviving are sisters, Emma Krueger, Mrs. Adeline Sellke, and Mrs. Florence Stebleton, and brother, Elmer. Services will be Tuesday at 1 p.m. in the H. H. Birkenkamp Mortuary, Broadway, where the body will be after noon Sunday.

Police Chief Herbert, by wireless phone, ordering a speed car patrolman to leave Monroe-st, near Swayne Field; and phone headquarters from Detroit-av and Dorr-s' The lower picture shows Patrolman Albert Krueger in a speed car with wireless receiving apparatus on his head.